The sacrifice of Jesus Christ

Christ was free from all sin, and He desires to make us free as well. Jesus Christ was a free man. He had absolute dominion over Himself. Naturally, He was a human being like all the rest. He had the same physical and moral needs as we do. He was a man as we all are, but He remained Master of Himself. He had decided: "I am the beloved Son of

What Desires Are Politically Important?

But man differs from other animals in one very important respect, and that is that he has some desires which are, so to speak, infinite, which can never be fully gratified, and which would keep him restless even in Paradise. The boa constrictor, when he has had an adequate meal, goes to sleep, and does not wake until he needs another meal.
